Presents

The Janet H. Wilson Memorial Scholarship

One of the founders of the Education Foundation Inc. of Caldwell County, Janet H. Wilson, 1934-2020, was a champion of education and community. Mrs. Wilson earned her baccalaureate degree at Wellesley College and obtained her master's degree in psychology from Appalachian State University.

Mrs. Wilson served on the Caldwell County Board of Education for 18 years, leading the board as its Chair. She served on the North Carolina School Boards Association for 12 years and held the statewide position of President. She served as a member of the North Carolina General Assembly's Public Education Policy Council, as Director of the Public School Forum of North Carolina, and as Chair of the North Carolina Alliance for Public Education.

Devoted to early education, she worked diligently with the Foundation for the Carolinas to establish a fund and strategy to help provide Pre-K education to elementary schools in Caldwell County.

Mrs. Wilson was a member of the Davidson College Board of Visitors and the Davidson College Board of Trustees, serving on its Athletics Policy Committee and Admissions and Financial Aid Committee. She was the recipient of the Southern Conference Distinguished Service Award, the Satie Broyhill Lifetime Achievement Award, the North Carolina School Boards Association Award for Outstanding Boardmanship, and the L.A. Dysart Citizenship Award for her commitment to education and to the community.

An elder of the United Presbyterian Church of Lenoir, Mrs. Wilson also served on the boards of the Patterson School Foundation, Caldwell Hospice and Palliative Care, the Caldwell Hospice Foundation, Foothills Conservancy of North Carolina, and President of the Education Foundation of Caldwell County.

The Education Foundation honors Mrs. Wilson's service and dedication to education through the Janet Wilson Memorial Scholarship.

The Janet Wilson Memorial Scholarship

Who is Eligible?

The Janet Wilson Memorial Scholarship is open to graduating seniors from Caldwell County Schools wishing to attend an institution of higher learning and seeking a degree in a Career and Technical Education (CTE) related field of study. Applicants must be a CTE Concentrator and have at least a 3.0 unweighted GPA. Applicants must be US citizens and must meet requirements for admission to an institute of higher learning of their choice.
