Inspired by family, friends and colleagues and to extend the realm of education to graduating seniors at South Caldwell High School, The Brandon Eugene Church Memorial Scholarship honors Brandon's life and celebrates his love of family, friends and education.

A student at Granite Falls Elementary, Granite Falls Middle, and South Caldwell High School, Brandon Church's accomplishments include 1999 Student Body President and co-captain of the Spartans' Football Team. Brandon graduated from Appalachian State University and played football for the Appalachian State Mountaineers.

Brandon Church was very gifted with many talents. He became an accomplished chef, working in the food industry. He also loved music and song writing and was named the 2007 ASCAP award winner for most performed song "How 'Bout You." Brandon was a proud and devoted loving father, his greatest source of achievement, pride and inspiration.

Brandon had the ability to connect to people and made and kept lifetime friends from as far back as kindergarten. He was a smart and caring person who never missed an opportunity to support others. Everyone had a better day after getting a legendary Big B bear hug. He was a kind and loving soul with an encouraging word for anyone he met. To know Brandon was to love Brandon.
